Christianal Seriew, on the subject of the Extract of Sarsaparilla in certain affections, by Benjaming Travers, F. R. S., &c. Speaking of those diseases, and diseases arising from the excess of mercury, he states that no ramedy is equal to the Extract of Sarsaparilla, its power is extraordinary, more so than any other drug I am acquainted with. It is, in the strictest sense, a tonic with this invaluable attribute, that this is applicable to a state of the system so sunken, and yet so irritable as remlars other substances of the tonic class unavoilable or injurious.
